

The IU Department of Biology announces the 30th Joan Wood Lecture:

“The Path Not Well Traveled: From Scientist to Entrepreneur”

Presented by

Tracy Lawhon

Wednesday, March 30, 2011

4:00 p.m., Myers Hall 130

About Tracy Lawhon:

Education:

- Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis, J.D., Law, 1990 – 1994.
- Indiana University, B.S., Microbiology, 1984 – 1988.

Professional Experience:

- Chief Pharmaceutical Development Officer, Tragara Pharmaceuticals, 2007 – Present.
- Executive Director, Project Management, Novartis, 2004 – 2006.
- Director, Project Leader, Schering-Plough, 1997 – 2004.
- Associate Director, Regulatory Affairs, Warner Lambert, 1996 – 1997.
- Manager, Regulatory Affairs, Eli Lilly, 1989 – 1996.
- Senior Scientist, Abbott Diagnostics, 1988 – 1989.

Tracy Lawhon, Tragara Pharmaceuticals

Professional Activities:

- Member, Steering Committee, Better Education for Women in Science and Engineering (BE WiSE), a program within the San Diego Science Alliance.
- Member, ATHENA, an organization for executive women in the sciences. (Serves as a mentor and organizes career planning workshops.)

Learn more at: www.bio.indiana.edu/events/lectures/wood.shtml